Board Proceeds With Jackson Ridge Project

County Seeks Suitable Waste Disposal Method

The growing and acute need for a sanitary land fill or some other acceptable method of disposing of solid waste in Hancock County was discussed at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Monday. Entering into an analysis of the existing situation were such public figures as Mayor Carlisle Ladner of Waveland, Sanitary Inspector Louis Fernandez of the Hancock County Health Department, Dr. Walter Russo and M. L. Dodson, and Thomas Kidd of the Waveland Civic Improvement Association. Also attending the hearing were Mrs. J. E. Servat of the Lakeshore Garden Club and several concerned individual citizens.

Photographs showing the accumulated "mountain" of raw garbage, solid waste, and swarms of flies buzzing as being the "growing disgrace of Jackson Ridge". Reportedly the stench is offensive for miles and the sight of starving and diseased dogs eating from this refuse is repugnant.

The Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to clean up Jackson Ridge as a dumping area and get construction of a Recreational Park and Playground started in the immediate future.

A study is to be made of available sites that could be used for a well-operated sanitary land fill. Matters to be decided upon include not only the location of the fill but also the best possible solution to meet the sanitation problem and yet stay within a reasonable budget. Both a sanitary land fill and a disposal plant were discussed with an expressed feeling that a properly operated land fill would meet the immediate needs, but in a matter of time a disposal plant could be a more permanent and far-sighted answer.

Supervisor Charles Russ III will coordinate a meeting and report to the Board of Supervisors during their Monday session on the recommendations of a group charged with the responsibility of investigating possible locations for garbage disposal facilities. The problem of accumulated raw garbage is said to be a nationwide problem in which compliance with anti-air and water pollution regulations must be strictly adhered to. Representatives from the Chamber of Commerce, County Health Department and city officials of Bay St. Louis and Waveland are cognizant of the unwholesome environment and have expressed an eagerness to clean up Jackson Ridge and other unauthorized dumping grounds and set up an acceptable system for waste and garbage disposal.

LEGION AUXILIARY

American Legion Auxiliary will meet at 7:30 p.m., Monday, December 14, at the American Legion Home for their monthly meeting and annual Christmas party. All members are urged to attend.

Court House Repair Work Progressing

Massive scaffolding has been erected and work is progressing satisfactorily on repairs being made to the exterior of the Hancock County Court House, according to a report given on Monday to the Board of Supervisors by Fred Wagner, architect in charge of the renovations.

In speaking of the plastering to be done on a portion of the interior of the building Wagner said: "We have come to the awkward stage of not knowing exactly how it is best to proceed." Wagner said approximately $5,000 had been reserved for ornamental work in the Court Room and added they could not go outside a certain price range for plastering, possibly lowering ceilings in the Court Room, etc.

It was Wagner's recommendation to the Supervisors that work move along slowly on the interior work and a decision reached on how the various rooms would be used. New and better lighting, possibly a lowered ceiling and air conditioning was also mentioned for the Court Room. Wagner was told by Lucien Kidd regulations as outlined by the Office of Emergency Preparedness specified the completion of planned interior renovations within the contract period and his interpretation of the agreement was that all specified work would have to be completed within the time limits of the contract. Wagner explained his recommendations were made in the interest of saving money for the County and being certain that the planned plastering would be done to best advantage. There are insufficient funds available at this time to completely renovate the interior of the building.

The development of Jackson Ridge as a Recreational Park and Playground will move ahead with all deliberate speed, according to a unanimous decision made on Monday by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors who acted in accordance with an opinion given by County Attorney Jos. Bonaventuri and with the expressed support of leading and influential citizens.

Construction on the proposed 700 acre park was blocked with a decision by Circuit Court Judge Harry Walker who sustained a bill of objections filed by Jerry L. Ladner through his attorney, Randall Jones. During June the Hancock County Board of Supervisors approved construction of the park which would include a 600 acre 16th section of school land plus an additional 100 privately owned acreage to be acquired at a purchase price of $2,000 per acre. In examining the minutes of the Board of Supervisors and in connection with this resolution it was discovered the minutes had not been signed by board members. This error, admitted by the supervisors, was corrected during August when the resolution was reintroduced and properly signed and recorded.

There was standing room only in the court room where concerned citizens were invited by Russell Elliott, president of the Board, to give verbal expression with reference to the proposed park development. Louis Fernandez, sanitary inspector connected with the Hancock County Health Department was strong in his statements concerning the present condition of Jackson Ridge now used as a dumping ground. Fernandez described the rotting garbage, flies, dead animals and many marauding dogs seen running in packs and foraging on putrefying and rotting carcasses of animals heaped on the dump. The Jackson Ridge Dump was said to have been operated as a satisfactory sanitary land fill prior to Hurricane Camille. Since that time conditions have gotten "out of hand and grow steadily worse" according to a report made by Tommy Kidd, who heads the Waveland Civic Improvement Association. Attorney Walker James Phillips in addressing the group said uniformed people objecting to the development of the park were under the impression the money could be spent for road improvement or for schools, however, Phillips said the money was earmarked for recreational use only and could not be used for any other purpose. Talmadge Rayborn, executive director of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, pointed out what the development of the area could mean in terms of tourist dollars to Hancock County. Rayborn said revenue from 350 trailer sites could bring in about forty dollars a day per camper. He spoke of the advantage of the geographical location of the land situated on the water front and near enough to New Orleans to attract weekend sportsmen as

Interstate Route 607 Completion

Four-laning of a Gulf Highway by the Mississippi Highway Department is under way on the route very soon in Hancock County area.

Interstate 607, which intersects four-lane 90 approximately eight miles west of Waveland in Hancock County, runs in a west-northwest direction to the I-10 interchange. From that point west 2.3 miles to the Mississippi-Louisiana Line paved four-lanes of I-10 are ready for use upon completion of the section connecting I-59.

A majestic new East Pearl River Bridge is complete, as are Middle and West Pearl River Bridges in Louisiana.

Construction of the 6.5 mile portion of 607 was paid for with Southern District Highway Department funds while the I-10 work, simultaneously awarded by the Highway Department, was a Federal Aid project. Cost of the Highway 607 four-laning was $1.5 million and the I-10 paving, complete with weighing stations, cost $1 million.

The two paving projects were won in competitive bidding and constructed under contract by T.L. James and Company, Inc. Project Engineer Dan Hillman and his Poplarville project force supervised all construction for the State Highway Department. Hattiesburg's District Six Engineer J.F. Brownlee and District Construction Engineer R. I. Newcomer coordinated all work.

NASA-MTF Gets $10 Million Fund

Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.) said Tuesday $10 million is included in the National Aeronautics and Space Administration appropriation bill for operation of the Mississippi Test Facility and Slickfield Computer Complex.

Stennis said the money will be used to finance Mississippi Test Facility's new mission of supporting basic institutional and technical services to federal agencies in pursuit of space and environmental research missions.

Plans call for transformation of the spiraling South Mississippi facility from a Saturn test site to an installation housing government agencies dealing with environmental research. NASA's Earth Resources Laboratory and the Coast Guard Data Buoy Project are two agencies already located at the facility. Stennis noted $13.5 million was approved and earmarked for the Data Buoy in the Department of Transportation appropriations bill passed in the Senate last week.

County Residents Refused Utilities

A serious hardship is being imposed on some people who live in the northern part of Hancock County, according to Randall Jones who is an attorney employed by Jerry Ladner. Jones referred to individuals who have built homes that are not in compliance with regulations set forth in the Southern Building Code. They have been refused gas and electricity connections for non-compliance, and therefore cannot move into these buildings.

Ladner, in a petition signed by almost a thousand qualified voters, seeks to have the Board of Supervisors rescind or annul a resolution made by the Board and adopted by the Southern Building Code for Hancock County. A legal question has been sent to the Attorney General requiring an opinion as to whether the Governor's Emergency Council approves the State Statute. Whether it will be necessary to conduct a special election for the purpose of voting on the building code compliance is hinged upon the Attorney General's opinion. Meanwhile compliance with the code is mandatory.

Jones asked the Board of Supervisors to hold the code in abeyance in order to permit these people to obtain services connections and move into their dwellings. Russell Elliott, speaking for the Board members, said to temporarily suspend provisions set forth in the code was not within the authority of the Board of Supervisors but the Governor's Emergency Council had set up a Board of Appeals. Elliott suggested persons with problems concerning code compliance should meet with the representatives of the Board of Appeals (G.E.C.). At Jones' request, the Attorney General and ask for a verbal opinion which could be supported with a written document at a later date. This suggestion was rejected by Benvenuti who said such a practice was not acceptable procedure, however, he felt the opinion would be sent in time for next Monday's Board meeting. In explaining the petition to rescind the code, Jones said his client had no objections to a building code if zoned, but for those living in "outlying areas" and away from the danger zone there was no necessity for complying with regulations as outlined in a code which called for additional building expenses and inspection fees.

School Board Purchases Land

The Hancock County School Board has purchased a little more than 18 acres directly adjacent to the present Gulfview school. Plans are in the final stages for construction of a high school at the Gulfview site and this land will be used for future expansion.

The land was purchased from Reginald Moran for $1200 per acre which was less than the amount set by two real estate brokers. Rosemary Ramelli had appraised the value per acre as $1650 and Charles Dickson had set a price of $1600.

It was also announced by the Board that upon completion of the high school, the name would be changed from Gulfview to Hancock South Central.

Eight Fires Occur Sunday

Eight fires broke out Sunday and destroyed a total of 700 acres in Hancock County, according to County Forester Mike Hendry. He said that arson was suspected in all eight cases.

One fire occurred about one half mile from Highway 90 on the Clermont Harbor-Lake-shore Road. The fire blazed for two hours, burning 120 acres, almost destroying five homes. The Mississippi Forestry Commission extinguished the fire after being called to the scene at 1:20 Sunday afternoon.

A fire which was set in five different places destroyed 240 acres in an area north of Kiln and a report was also received of a blaze on Highway 90 behind Miller's Store. Hendry emphasized the fact that all of the fires seemed to have been purposely set. "In fact," Hendry added, "seventy-five percent of all fires in Hancock County are caused by arsonists."

Paul Montjoy, GEC Associated Director, stated that beginning December 15, 1970, Section 105.1 (d) of the Emergency Building Code will be strictly enforced. The section states: "When construction is commenced before a permit is obtained, any applicable permit fees shall be doubled." Montjoy also said that farm structures such as barns, silos, and tool sheds are exempt from the code. However, the farm residence comes under the provision of the code.

Letters to the editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo
I saw in a recent edition of the Echo that Shoreline Park was asking the board of Supervisors for a permit to expand. As a former victim of Shoreline Park (I rented for 6 months only, thank goodness) let me say that septic tanks, shell drains etc. don't work there, and during a rainy spell we were one large lake of raw sewage. If the Supervisors allow another addition without complete sewage, water and streets in Shoreline Park, then remember it's the voters of Hancock county who are paying maintenance now and will continue to pay for years to come.
Regretfully,

KOSCIUSKO CALLED

"BEEHIVE"
During the state's early history the town of Kosciusko was known as "Redbud Springs" but was later named for a Polish-American patriot, Thaddeus Kosciusko. Early trade activity in the area gave it the title "Beehive of the hills."

Social Security Information

Do you know how much you have paid into social security? Do you know if you have been given full credit for all your work under social security? These are two important questions to which every working man and woman should know the answers. "Just as you like to be aware of how much money you have in your bank checking or savings account, you should be sure that your social security record is complete and up to date," according to Mr. Theodore F. Robinson, District Manager in the Gulfport Social Security Office.

record once every three years. This is especially important if you frequently change jobs. To check your record contact your nearest social security district office and ask for postcard form OAR-7004. If your records do not agree with the amounts on your social security record, get in touch with your nearest social security office. Do this as soon as possible, as mistakes become more difficult to correct as time goes by.

Remember, concluded Mr. Robinson, "the social security benefits that you and your dependents may receive are based on the earnings on your social security record."

Yule Party

Members of the Lakeshore Garden Club plan a Christmas Party to be held at Haverty's Restaurant in Waveland on December 17 and they have invited as guests of honor Supervisors Russell Elliott and Charles Russ III. The invitation was extended in appreciation for a conducted tour arranged by these supervisors in order that the approximately 40 members of the Garden Club might have an opportunity to learn more about Hancock County and the progress being made in its development.

Mrs. J.E. Sarvat who served as the club's president said "We were so impressed with the many things we learned on this tour it's just wonderful and surprising to know how much is really going on in our county."

When asked if he planned to attend the party Elliott answered "I certainly am. I've been invited haven't I?"

Elliott said he would like for everyone to know that the Board of Supervisors will arrange guided tours of the County for any organized group upon request. The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce is also cooperating in the "Hawkeye Your County" movement.

could include a well decorated Christmas tree, or any Christmas oriented subject matter. The fourth category is a Lighted and Decorated Outdoor Tree. Mrs. Boyer said the business establishment earning first place will be awarded the traveling plaque now hanging in the office of last year's winner, Dave Trotter. Name of the winner will be engraved on the plaque and it will be placed on the wall of his business address for a period of one year. The Bay-Waveland Garden Club is in hopes that many will enter the contest and cooperate in an effort to make Bay St. Louis and Waveland especially beautiful during this Christmas Season. Such lovely lightings and decorations add a deeper depth to the meaning of Christmas and, in fact, IS CHRISTMAS to a great many people. ## Benefit For Children Planned This Week

A benefit Flea Market and Sale will be held this week at the Children's Center for Special Education, located by the Hancock Station for Retarded Children. The Flea Market will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the back wing of the C. Jones School on Old Spanish Trail. The Cake Sale will be held all day on Saturday in the same location. All proceeds from the sales will be used to buy much needed toys and playground equipment for children, who have none of their own.

At the beginning of this year, the children had a few toys and games, but as the year went on, the last toy, a ball, was lost. . . and now the children have nothing. And since the school is no longer a day school, the children are not allowed to play during recess and exercise periods. Mrs. Nettie Giles and Ruth Summers, who hope to be able to raise enough money to buy some recreational equipment for the children, who range in age from 6 to 18 years old.

Jackson Ridge...

well as tourist from all over the country. Dr. M. L. Dodson, a local physician, urged the Board to immediately arrange for sanitary disposal of waste. Charlie Hill of the Port and Harbor Commission endorsed action and said a great deal of money once available to the County for the development of recreational areas had been lost because of delays and blockage of Jackson Ridge development. When the recollection was made to authorize acquisition of land and proceed with the development there was approval and applause from the audience. Benvenuti dictated: "The Board is hereby ordered and directed to issue the necessary warrants for said purchase in conjunction with the State of Mississippi Parks Commission."

Most of the citizens interested in the Jackson Ridge development had left the Court Room when Jerry Ladner and his attorney, Randall Jones appeared while the Board of Supervisors were beginning a study of the matter. They were granted a hearing. Jones asserted the Bill of Exceptions filed for Ladner included three or four points. It was his interpretation Judge Walker's order signed November 16 not to hold for a month all points embraced in the Bill of Exceptions. Jones asserted to continue the development of Jackson Ridge would be going against court orders. In a later interview with Attorney Jones he said: "I don't know what position we will take. I raised three or four points on the Bill of Exceptions. I am unable to tell at this time what steps my client may wish to take." Jones said he had never seen Jackson Ridge and was not aware of the conditions existing in that vicinity. Reportedly some persons wishing to block the development of the park objected to the price of $2,000 per acre on the 100 acres of land good for the area in addition to the 10th section land. Elliott said: "We had the land appraised. It's estimated worth is in excess of the purchase price. This land is not marsh and swamp land as some people are led to believe. It was to be developed as a subdivision. Lots 90' x 150' would sell for $1,500 each and there are six such lots to an acre." Elliott said local appraisers as well as both State and Federal appraisers placed a value on the land in excess of the $2,000 an acre price.

In an interview with Attorney Benvenuti after the Board meeting was over he said: "You heard my opinion. We take the position that the Board of Supervisors may proceed with the development of Jackson Ridge. We are going ahead. Any opposition would have to be instigated by a lawyer." It was not learned through Jerry Ladner whether he plans an injunction. Ladner once operated a bar and lounge on U. S. Highway 90, however, the business was sold and he now has no known business address. Ladner was a former candidate for Board of Supervisors and has become widely known in Hancock County in connection with petitions. In one petition he objected to the use of county money for development of Jackson Ridge. In another petition he objected to compliance with the Southern Building Code for outlying areas in Hancock County, and in a third petition reportedly gotten out by his mother-in-law with Ladner as the second name on the petition consisting of some 160 signatures he objected to a sanitary land fill being located on a proposed site on the Lower Bay Road. "We have not entirely ruled out the use of that location for a sanitary fill," Elliott said.

Seedling Trees Available From County Forester

A shipment of seedling trees has arrived at the Agricultural Building located at 411 Ne-cades Avenue and will be distributed to all persons wishing to make planting free of charge, according to a news release made by the County Agent.

Included in the shipment are 10,000 loblolly pines, 10,000
Slash Pine, a limited number of Ash, Sycamore, sweet gum, Catalpa, Cotton Wood and bald cypress. These trees are reportedly between 10" and 14" high and of fast-growing varieties suitable for this area. The cypresses are moisture-loving trees and thrive best in a damp location. The loblolly is a thick, flaky barked tree with spiny tipped cones and a native of the Southern part of the United States while the slash pines usually found in swampy low-lying lands of Florida and other similar topography in the South. It is classified as a hard wood and grows rapidly in Southern coastal regions. The cypress gum is an ornamental tree valued for its shade and for the brilliance of its leaves during the fall months. Catalpa is of the trumpet creeper family of ornamental trees while the cottonwood is of the poplar family. All of these seedlings were nursery grown, according to Michael M. Hendry who serves as Hancock County Forester. Hendry said the trees should be planted as soon as possible and urges interested citizens to claim their trees and plant them this week. Office hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and should there be remaining trees Hendry said he would be glad to re-open the office again on Saturday morning between the hours of 8:00 until noon to accommodate those wishing to pick up plants at that time.

J. Watson, Jr., president, announced the Board of Directors' interest rate of 8 1/8 percent, an 8.175 percent net cost of money to the company.

The bids were accepted by Mississippi Power Company's Board of Directors after reviewing proposals from — THE FIRST BOSTON CORPORATION, GOLDMAN, SACHS & CO., HORNBLOWER & WEEKS-HEMPHILL, NOYES, PAINT, WEBBER, JACKSON & CURTIS INCORPORATED, DEAN WITTER & CO. INCORPORATED, HALSEY, STUART & CO. INC., BLYTH & CO., INC., MERRILL LYNCH, PIERCE, FENNER & SMITH INCORPORATED, SALOMON BROTHERS, AND KIDDER, PEABODY & CO. INCORPORATED, WHITE WELD & CO.

The successful bidders said that upon approval of The Securities and Exchange Commission, the bonds would be offered to the public at 100.844 to yield 8.05 percent.

"The cost of money to Mississippi Power Company under this bond sale is the highest in its 45-year history. It is 74 percent more than costs arising from a similar sale five years ago," Mr. Watson said. This increase in interest rates is but one of many inflationary pressures that continue to cause a sharp rise in the cost of providing electric service," he explained.

MR. AND MRS. HUBERT SPIERS

Richardson-Spiers United In Ceremony

Church of Christ, Gulfport, Miss., was the setting for the wedding of Miss Amelia Ann Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. Richardson of 325 Carroll Avenue, Bay St. Louis, to Hubert Steven Spiers, son of Ret. SM/S and Mrs. Hubert R. Spiers of McNeill, Miss., at 7:30 p.m., November 20.

Rev. T. Pierce Brown performed the double ring ceremony. Tall baskets of white gladioli and white carnations and candles entwined with pink Fuji chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Misses Mary Esther, Betty Lynn and Beverly Martin sang wherever Thou Goest, I will Go.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of peau de soie fashioned on Empire lines. The cowl collar and upper bodice was trimmed with lace and featured leg-of-mutton sleeves. Four circles of lace trimmed the skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a Cinderella crown and she carried a lace-covered Bible with garlands of Stephanotis and English ivy.

Miss Dianne Presnell, Bay St. Louis, served the bride as maid of honor and Miss Helen Blehl, also of Bay St. Louis, was bridesmaid.

They wore crystal pink peau de soie floor length gowns made on Empire lines with short sleeves and lacy rosebud trim.

Their headpieces were fashioned of green velvet leaves and pink peau de soie rosebuds. They carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Joseph D. Spiers was his brother's best man and Donald Dill of Meridian served as groomsmen.

Miss Mary Lynn Lewis served as usherette and Michael O. Richardson, brother of the bride, was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church reception hall. Pink carnations and wedding bells decorated for the occasion.

The mother of the bride received their guests wearing a brown and white suit with brown accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Spiers chose a royal blue suit with black accessories and a peppermint carnation corsage. Both mothers were presented with a long stem red rose from the bride at the ceremony.

Gulfport, Hawketts Favored To Win N. Central Tourney

By Eddie Engelhorn
The team that happens to be not usually wins a basketball tournament, was the consensus of a group of coaches Monday.

But it's going to take a real hot quarter to cool the Gulfport Commodores, who are in the top bracket in Hancock North Central's annual invitational basketball tournament that started Wednesday and ends Saturday night in the Hawks' gym with the championship game.

Gulfport, a Class AA team and a member of the Big Eight Conference, holds the state championship trophy from last season and are undefeated this season in seven outings. Last weekend they breezed through the Gulfport Invitational defeating Hattiesburg 54-43 for the championship.

The other teams in the tournament are not as highly ranked but any one of them could get hot and upset the high-flying Commodores. North Central has a good team as has Bay High but both are young and inexperienced. The Hawks and Tigers are in the bottom half of the bracket and could wind up in the semi-finals Friday for the privilege of battling the Commodores should they emerge winners of the top bracket.

Gulfport plays Pearl River Central at 8:45 p.m. Thursday and then meets the winner of the Leesville-Marion County game that was slated for Wednesday at 8:45 Friday. Either one of these teams could upset the Commodores. Leesville is sparred by the Moore brothers, Shimmy and Larry who combined for 51 points Saturday night to win the Richton Rotary tournament at Richton, Miss., defeating McLain 81-65 and upping its season record to 5-0.

Bay High played Pass Christian Wednesday and North Central is scheduled to meet D'iberville at 7:30 p.m. today, Thursday. Semi-finals for the lower bracket will be at 7:30 Friday, upper bracket 8:45. Consolation game is at 4 Saturday and the finals are slated for 7.

The girls' tournament is also open but the strongest teams appear to be North Central, Bay High, George County and Pass Christian. Bay High and Pass Christian each have only one loss on their records, that being to North Central, the Hawketts having also defeated D'iberville and boast a 1-1 record losing only to Monticello in the Marion County tourney.

Two games were played Wednesday in the upper bracket. Semi-finals are at 5 p.m. Friday, consolation at 4 Saturday, finals at 7:30.

Two games are scheduled for tonight in the lower bracket. Pass Christian meeting Pearl River Central at 5 and D'iberville plays North Central at 6:15. Semi-finals are at 6:15 Friday.

A tabular of trophies will be awarded after the final game Saturday night including two donated by Coast Electric Power Assn., one each for best sportsmanship, boys and girls. Boys and girls will receive like awards, championship, runner-up and consolation. Individual awards go to the players with the most assists and most steals. Also to those making the all-tournament teams.

Defending champs are not competing this year. Harrison Central won both boys and girls winners' trophies last year with Bay High's girls and Stone's boys coping the runner-up cups.

TOURNAMENT SUPPER

A supper will be served from 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. this Saturday at the Hancock North Central Invitational Basketball tournament.

It will be served in the H.N.C. cafeteria and will be held between the semi-finals and the finals.

Rockachaws Drop Two Still 4-2

Every athletic team has its off days (remember Ole Miss) and St. Stanislaus' Rockachaws are no exception — after defeating four good teams the Rocks lost two last weekend. Friday Long Beach defeated the Chaws 61-90 at Long Beach and Saturday Harrison Central won 80-63 in Stanislaus gym.

However, the Rocks still boast a good 4-2 record having defeated Notre Dame twice, Our Lady of Victories and D'iberville. Saturday they travel to Poplarville, Tuesday to Ocean Springs and Wednesday to Wiggins for the Stone High Tournament.

Tiger - Pirate Game Off

An inter-conference game between Bay High of the Gulf Coast Conference and Pass Christian of the Pascagoula River Conference, slated for Friday in Bay High's Tigerdome has been cancelled because the Tigers will be playing in Hancock North Central's annual invitational tournament, Bay High coach James Pair said Monday.

The Tigers will entertain Stone next Tuesday as scheduled, he added.

Fighting Hawks Lose In Gulfport Tourney

As expected coach Roland Ladner's young cagers from Hancock North Central, a Class A School, found the going rough in the Gulfport High Invitational Tournament last week, losing to then undefeated Moss Point 62-74 Thursday night.

Gulfport, a Class AA school rated tops in the Big Eight Conference, won the tourney while Moss Point advanced to the consolation game where they lost to Gulfport East 50-57. However, the Hawks were no set-up for Moss Point's Tigers, losing the game in a rugged second half after opening up an early lead playing the Tigers on even terms through the first half. Liston Andrews scored first for the Tigers but David Necaise came right back with a field goal for a 2-2 tie and the Hawks went on to post a 10-5 lead.

But the Hawks' lead was short-lived as the more experienced Tigers claimed a 14-14 first period deadlock and then took a slim 24-23 halftime lead, went ahead 50-42 at the end of the third and added four points to their lead in the fourth.

Top scorers for North Central were Kenny Seals with 15 points, David Necaise 13, Sherman Gardner and O'Neill Cuevas 10 each. Richard Polk was high for Moss Point with

20. To add to coach Ladner's woes, both Seals and Martin fouled out.

Score by quarters:
MP 14 10 26 24 —74
HNC 14 9 19 20 —62

Honor Roll

Mrs. Lucille Giametta Parker, Jr. has been named to the president's list, the top academic honor roll at the University of Southern Mississippi for the fall quarter. To make this list a student must have a 4.0 scholastic average, all A's on a minimum study load of 15 quarter hours work. Mrs. Parker Jr., a graduate of Bay Senior High is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Giametta and the late Mr. Giametta of Bay St. Louis.

Hounds Nip

Bay High's quarter back lacking experience, found the water rough at Ocean Springs Friday losing a Gulf Coast Conference game to the Greyhounds 37-05. It was the Hounds' fifth win of the season and their second conference win.

Gary Blalock was high scorer for the Tigers with 16 points with Willie Thomas adding 15. Both Thomas and Fred Lennel fouled out. Big gun for the Hounds was Dick Mayfield with 27.

Score by quarters.

At Lamar-Lane Chevrolet Mr. Ladner was greeted by salesman Charles Townsend. Mr. Ladner told Charles what he was interested in equipment on a new truck and he was given a Lamar-Lane price on a Heavy Duty Chevy Tandem truck that he just couldn't turn down, and it was the best deal offered him on a new truck. Folks from all around are visiting Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and getting their prices before they buy for they have been hearing about the good deals offered by them. ## JC Wildcats No. 1 State Again

Bay River Junior College, with seven Bay and St. Stanislaus grads on its roster, romped to second consecutive Mississippi Junior College Football Championship, blasting East Central 27-8 Friday night at Dolocal lads on the team are Estepa, William Redo, and Robert McArthur, Bay High, Charles Math and Rucks Robinson of St. Stanislaus.

Redo, 160-pound defensive tackle, was named most valuable player in the state junior college football championship. Bay High and Wildcat men's basketball coach John T. Russell was selected coach of the year for the second consecutive time by the Mississippi Junior College Athletic Coaches Assn.

Russell said Monday that other gridders from Bay River showed promise, particularly Estepa who downed the No. 2 quarter-back in his freshman year. In counting on Gene to be the "first next season", Russell said, "I think he is in his fourth year." Russell is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi and was a starting tackle in 1958 Southern squad that won the national championship. He replaced Holden who is now athletic director for JRJC.

Friday's championship game the Cats scored four touchdowns in the first quarter and were never seriously threatened. East Central scored a tie and two-point conversion late in the second.

State Moving Forward Says Governor Williams

The State of Mississippi is moving forward, according to Governor John Bell Williams, after reviewing the official Census Bureau figures for 1970 which show for this State a population gain of 68,707 over 1960.

The Governor said: "Another sign that Mississippi is moving forward, particularly in the ability of providing a livable and a safe environment for our people."

Preliminary figures released last summer indicated a decrease of approximately 17,000 in Mississippi's population. The official tabulation comes as a surprise. In evaluating the report Taylor Webb, president of Mississippi Economic Council said: "Although the gain was small it is a positive factor and will help to boost the spirits of all Mississippians."

The Mississippi Economic Council serves as a State Chamber of Commerce.

Summing up the 1970 Census report on a national level Bill Nelthorpe said: "The Continued mirrors a nation troubled by central city decay, and suburban sprawl, trends which may get worse in the decade ahead."

The nation grew by more than 35 million persons between 1960 and 1970 with a current population of 204.7 million. The Census showed, too, a people in search of warmer climates and water. Migration to coastal areas continues to grow. One of the main reasons for the population change is the reapportionment of congress.

Sunday Supper Honors Several

Col. and Mrs. Nunez C. entertained in their High-Drive home on Sunday in a champagne supper to commemorate their wedding anniversary and that of Prof. and Mrs. Robert Langlois of Mississippi City. The celebration was also a "Hi-Lite" party for Mr. and Mrs. Holt who are now in port following a vacation in Washington and for Mrs. A.N. Morphy who soon for a winter vacation to be spent in Canada, for Col. and Mrs. Alfred LeFebvre who left Tuesday for their China Grove plantation in Louisiana.

A traditional Army-Navy cloth covered the banquet table which was set with silver and crystal. Centering the table in a large cut glass bowl was an arrangement of white cushion mums interspersed with pale lavender Scotch heather. White tapered in silver candle holders completed the arrangement. On a credenza and displayed on an elevated holder was the mother-of-pearl covered prayer book and wedding handkerchief carried by both Mrs. Langlois and Mrs. Pilet on their wedding days. The prayer book formed the base for a shower bouquet of orchids carried by Mrs.

Pilet and was used in a similar manner when the Pilets' daughter nee Barbara Allen was married to Mr. Barry Bell. Mrs. Langlois cherishes this book which she says has been used by more than twenty brides throughout the years.

Potted plants wrapped in green foil and tied with white satin bows and tall candle holders with white tapers were used throughout the house. Background music included waltzes of Guy Lombardo and piano music of Van Cliburn.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Seems like cold fronts are getting more plentiful. There has been one reaching this section for the past three weeks followed by warm weather during the week. Don't know whether they are effecting fishing, but something is. Fishing has been spasmodic. Some speckles being caught here and there while fresh water fishing hasn't been too hot. A few green trout are being caught along with speckles by those using live shrimp. Where can you find live shrimp hereabout?

Understand two fishermen went all the way to Pop's Ferry back of Biloxi to get live shrimp at 3 cents apiece. Makes fishing rather expensive. We are going to stick to artificial baits.

According to Brother Perre fish are beginning to bite again along the Railroad Bridge. Some were speckles, red fish and flounders.

W.F. Odom does quite a bit of fishing and hunting. He goes whenever he can.

The quail season opened last Saturday, Dec. 5th in Mississippi and runs through Feb. 22nd. Open statewide.

Among some of our quail hunters are Harry Ruman, Louis DeCell, Mack Vestayer, Wop Glover, Willard Peterson, Chas. May and others.

The only word we received regarding the killing of quail was from Harry Roman and Louis DeCell who killed 8 on opening day. They claimed it was too hot and the dogs couldn't hunt too effectively. Plenty time left fellows.

If you are a fisherman or hunter let me have the information of your success and it will be published in this column.

J.V. Bontemps was over for the weekend. J.V. did a lot of fishing and hunting. Says he is going to start again. He is a Post Commander of the V.E.W.

Howard Carver is still working on his boat. Not doing any fishing or hunting right now. He has done a lot of both.

Sheldon Seuzeneau, Jr., Oscar and Charley Strain caught 10 ice boxes of red fish down at Empire last week. Sheldon said it was plenty fun pulling 'em in. They go quite often. Empire is down the river below New Orleans. A swell place for catching big fish most any old time. There are plenty charter boats for rent.

Perre Quintini did some fishing while home for a few days.

Perch are biting under-water baits on the fly rod. A small black gnat and spinner will do the trick. Caught some up Jordan River and Coward Bayou.

Alden Mauffray and yours truly caught 20 speckle trout Sunday including a few green trout and perch. The specks were caught in Mullato Bayou at Cross Bayou on the Shod Rig and plugs.

The third segment of the dove season opens on Dec. 23rd. It should be the best and will run through January 15. Colder weather should bring the birds our way.

Just a reminder. The Paul Dean (Koot) and rail season open again on Dec. 19th. The snipe season opens on Dec. 12 to Feb. 14. There is still plenty hunting to be done from now until February.

Wonder what has happened to Wop Glover? Hasn't been over for a long time. Too busy hunting, I suppose. The fish are being caught, Buddy.

There are plenty of boats to be had at LaRance's, Kelly's, Baxter's, Borge and Cosulich (amps). Fishing from any of these camps is good right now. Ask any fisherman where they are located.

Understand that both salt and fresh water fish are being caught in the Pipe Line Canal and Upper Black Bayou. Now is the time to get speckles, reds and flounders.

For those who want shrimp, understand that Ladner's Fish Market has only frozen shrimp. Occasionally they have fresh shrimp according to Lloyd.

Ernest (Pie) Ladner one of our old time fishermen was down from Massachusetts visiting relatives. Pie has been doing some fishing with friends. Said it felt good to be home for a while. He is a brother of Lloyd Ladner. Pretty good fisherman, too.

Ducks in this section are as scarce as hen's teeth right now. Should get better if real cold weather ever arrives. Some are being killed out in the marshes, however.

Gene Ladner is a busy man putting on the finishing touches at his new camp on Bayou La Croix. Looks mighty good, Gene.

John Genin and some friends attended the L.S.U. - Ole Miss game at Baton Rouge. Know they were all disappointed at the score.

Attended the races at the Fair Grounds last week. As usual had a lot that also ran.

Brothers at the college are still catching their share of fish. Must know how and where to get them.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Frankish Carver is known by many as one of our oldest and best commercial fishermen. Frankish is now 85 years of age and spends his spare-time opening oysters. How about that? A wonderful guy.

Did you know you can make your own pork rind? Take the rind from a piece of Salt Pork. Cut as thin as possible, put in formaldehyde for preservation. It works wonders on underwater baits.

Someone said a wedding ring is a matrimonial tourniquet designed to stop circulation.

An effective goose decoy can be made by using newspapers shaped like a goose and held up by wire or sticks. Ask August Rauxet how they are made.

Santa Claus is supposed to come down a chimney. Wonder how he gets out of a gas heater? There are very few chimneys left.
